Job Title	Community Engagement Manager
Team	West Region
Location	Homebased within Gloucestershire or Oxfordshire
Reports to	Head of Region, West
Salary	£28,236 - £33,219 per annum plus pension and benefits
Duration	Permanent
Normal Working Hours	36 hours per week

The Churches Conservation Trust (CCT) is the national charity caring for historic churches at risk. As the operator of the third largest heritage estate in charitable ownership in the UK, our 356 historic churches include examples of irreplaceable architecture, archaeology and art from 1,000 years of English history.

CCT has an international award-winning reputation in heritage conservation and regeneration. All churches in our care are listed, mostly Grade I and II*, and some are Scheduled Ancient Monuments.

Without our care, these buildings might have disappeared entirely. Instead, they are enjoyed as social, tourism, educational and cultural resources, kept open, in use, and living once again in the heart of their communities.

Overall job purpose

This is a fundamental role within our regional teams, internally the role is known as Lead Local Community Officer.

The future of CCT's outstanding collection of historic churches depends on us supporting communities around our churches caring for, opening, using and raising money for them. The Lead Local Community Officer will play the prime role in ensuring that local people are engaged, recruited, trained and supported.

The Lead Local Community Officer will lead the regional team of Local Community Officers to support, recruit, liaise with and develop volunteer and community supporters to care, open, use and raise money for the CCT's collection of historic churches.

They will head the Church Planning process for the region, ensuring every church maintains and develops their co-created Church Plan.

Key relationships

The Lead Local Community Officer will manage a team of regional Local Community Officers. They will also manage their own portfolio of churches which will involve engaging with volunteer and community supporters, friends and community groups.

The Lead Local Community Officer will work with a range of teams across CCT, including; Communications, Conservation, Fundraising and Finance.

Key duties and responsibilities

- Support, monitor and evaluate performance against the agreed standards and KPIs
- As part of the Regional Management Team, help to establish regional priorities, and develop initiatives to deliver regional plans
- Work with other Lead Local Community Officers to ensure good support for Local Community Officer Teams and offer peer to peer support.

Community and Volunteer engagement and support

Support and enable communities and volunteers to sustain their church, to raise funds, to hold events, and to provide inspiring interpretation, visitor services and care of the buildings.

- Establish and develop links with local communities, stakeholders and agencies
- Understand the locality and its needs
- Promote the CCT church as an important local asset and visitor attraction
- Introduce and demonstrate models for communities' support at CCT churches
- Empower communities and volunteers to develop use of churches within a CCT policy and procedural framework
- Document community activity with statistical information, digital media and reports
- Draft, agree and publish church plans and any necessary partnership agreements or memoranda of understanding with third parties active at our churches
- Offer information, advice and guidance to communities around such concerns as regulatory requirements, good governance, charitable status and funding requirements.

Communications and Networking

The Lead Local Community Officer will ensure that communities and volunteers have appropriate and timely contact with CCT.

- Organise and facilitate community and volunteer gatherings to enable networking and to address specific topics.
- Contribute to all public and internal communications channels
- Communicate CCT policies, procedures and guidance on successful approaches, to ensure sustainable community and volunteering activity
- Review, respond to and relay messages relating to churches in your area in a timely way
- Support local communities with marketing and awareness
- Ensure we recognise and thank communities for their support

Church Operations

The post holder will take primary responsibility for all day to day church operations and community activities.

- Respond to questions on behalf of the CCT regarding all aspects of the building, with the support of the Estates Officer and Conservation Projects Manager as necessary
- Be a key point of contact for church specific enquiries
- Support the CCT events booking procedure
- Ensure risk assessments, audits, six monthly checks and other mandatory reports are completed and submitted

Administration

The post holder will ensure that individuals' and groups' data and information is stored and maintained accurately and securely:

- Ensure good standards in communication and information management using The Trust's systems and processes
- Ensure accurate and current data is available on CCT's CRM database
- Ensure our work with individual volunteers follows The CCT volunteer management process
- Contribute data and information to enable effective reporting on KPIs and share relevant data with communities
- Manage delegated budgets, as required
- Contribute to regional plans
